

Recovered Voices Lectures

1. What is Recovered Voices?

- Learn about the mission of the Ziering-Conlon Initiative for Recovered Voices
- Hear many different pieces by composers you most likely have never known!
- See how many of these composers bridge the cultural and musical gap between 1920 and 1950!

2. The Life and Work of Erwin Schulhoff

- Erwin Schulhoff was one of the most fascinating and groundbreaking composers of the early 20th century.
- In this Lecture we listen to not only his music for piano, but for chamber, symphonic, vocal, and more
- See how Schulhoff influenced many composers to follow, such as Ravel and John Cage!

3. Recovered Voices in Film

- Many composers of the Recovered Voices Initiative DID escape the Nazi Regime, fleeing to America or elsewhere where they made a name for themselves writing a very different type of music: Movie Music!
- Some of these composers include Korngold, Milhaud, Ilse Weber, Mieczyslaw Weinberg and more!
- Hear the music and also see clips from the films themselves!
